TIMELY TOPICS

Wise, Super-Wise and Otherwise

DAMON SCHOOL P. T. A.

The regular monthly meeting was held on March 12th when a particularly pleasing program was given entirely by the boys of the different classes. First came the little folks of the sub-primary under Miss Burr, followed by the next grade under Miss Mitchell's instruction, all of whom did finely, delighting the audience. Following came the older boys in recitation and dialogue, who showed ability and good training under Miss Melvin. The boys' chorus from Miss James' room, trained by the teachers, who we all wish to thank. Two fine piano solos by Mrs. C. E. West added much to the program, which closed with the salute to the flag singing of "America."

Five subscriptions were sent to the Child Welfare Magazine and a committee appointed to collect 10 cents from each member, as a donation to the national fund for the erection of a building in Washington for the use of the men in service. At the meeting April 9th, Miss Elizabeth Jackson, who has been across, teaching in the schools for the blind, will be the speaker. All are invited to attend.

THE LIBERTY LOAN HONOR FLAG

A new and distinctive feature will be introduced in the Third Liberty Loan campaign, and every city or town in the country which subscribes more than its quota of Liberty bonds will be awarded by the Treasury Department an Honor Flag.

The flag will be 36 inches wide and 51 inches long. The body of the flag will be white with a broad red border, and three broad blue vertical stripes denoting the Third Loan. The flags, which will be of the same quality as the flags of the Navy, are already being manufactured and will be awarded as fast as the right to fly them in won. Though awarded by the Treasury department, will be given to the various districts.

There will also be a National Honor Flag for each State, to be flown at the State capitol, with the name of each town winning a flag inscribed upon it. There will be also preserved in the United States Treasury a National Honor Flag, with the record of each State recorded on it.

Stars to be placed on the flag of each city or town doubling its quota, will be also awarded, and an additional star for each time the quota is doubled.

An Honor Roll, containing the names of all subscribers, but not the amount of the individual subscriptions, will be kept in each community. A window card, bearing a representation of the Honor Flag, will be given each subscriber to the loan, to be displayed at the home or place of business.

WHIST AND DANCE

Mrs. Robert Bryant and Mrs. John Hastings gave a whist and dance at Armstrong Hall on Friday evening, Mar. 13th in aid of the S. A. S. A. P. which was very successful. The ladies started in to raise the $8.00 they had pledged, but raised and turned in $50.00 instead. Each was generous in donating for the expenses—Mrs. Hastings donating tickets and score cards and Mrs. Bryant all the prizes.

The prizes were won as follows: 1st prize, ladies, crocheted canesole, Mrs. Robert Kelly, 2nd, cut glass fruit dish, Mrs. Lloyd Miller, 3rd, guest towel, Miss Marie Sylvester, consolation, china hair receiver, Mrs. Walter Cummings.

1st prize, men's glass tobacco jar, Mr. John Salor, 2nd, a scarf, Mr. Tony Parazzo, 3rd, armlets, soldier boy, consolation, cup, Horace Eltinger. The box of chocolates went to Priv. Fallon Fitzpatrick played for the dancing.

DIVISION 37 SECOND DRAFT

The draft program for the coming year will be 800,000 men so says Provost Marshal Crowder. No sweeping withdrawals will be made at one time, but the method will be to draw the men gradually as they can be cared for in the camps. 95,000 men will begin to move on March 29 of which Massachusetts will be called on for 2065. The Selection Board of Division 37 which includes Hull, Hingham, Rockland, Whitman, Abington and Holbrook will be required to furnish 17 men. Examinations in anticipation of the draft has been going on in this district for the past few weeks. Last Saturday the following from Hull went before the examining board at Rockland and were examined: Edward Dean, Tony G. Cole, Alexander Coper, John T. MacKin, William H. Goodwin, and B. W. McGarry, Joseph MacDonough, Henry Webster Mitchell, r. John A. Robinson, Ralph L. A. Glard, Victor M. Cynolds, Lambert A. Mantovani, David M. Kilborn, Angelo Delmonico, Harry D. Giraldi, Efrastino Stratikas, Joseph E. James. Two men of Hull were passed by the board, John A. Robinson and Harry D. Giraldi. The following men have been notified to appear on Saturday, Mar. 23rd: William J. Irwin, Nicholas Ferrara, Thomas N. Nichols, George P. Donovan, Guy W. Ettinger, Francis R. Mapes, Leroy W. Mott, and Frank J. Murphy.

If you will show him how money breeds money, he will be all the better for it.

And every penny he saves and lends may go a long way toward bringing peace to all.

Encourage him to begin saving today. It's real patriotism—but it is more. It is laying the foundation for his future—and it is helping to make him what you want him to be.

EVERYBODY TAKE NOTICE.

Will correspondents please notice that the office of the Puritan Linotype has been moved from Purchase St., Boston, to 65 Austin St., Cambridge, and that all news for our publications should be sent there. All papers in this syndicate are now printed at 65 Austin St., and so far as we are concerned the old office does not exist.

NOTICE.

March 15, 1918.
Owing to war taxes, increased cost of paper stock, labor, etc., the business of the Hull East Wind and allied newspapers will be put on a strictly cash basis. April 1st, all in arrears for subscriptions will be crossed off the list. I hope no one will take offense at this. I know that it is a matter of not thinking, but subscribers and advertisers are getting very lax in the matter of paying bills and it puts me in a hole as I have to pay cash.

THE BIG WORK IN THE WAR

The War Lord Salutes the Field Marshall.

Such is the striking title to a well-timed cartoon in an agricultural paper, showing the War Lord in salute to the farmer. The meaning of it is that without the assistance that the farmer renders in the matter of providing food for the army the fighting ability of that body would be proportionally decreased. While the army is fighting, the farmer is busy. The promptness with which he sprang into the breach was a patriotism equal to that of the man who enlisted and the farmer's record in this particular was worthy of the high record that has become his. All over the United States the appeal is being met by more production. Fields are enlarged, intensive agriculture has taken the place of shoddy methods, more cattle are being fattened, more hogs grown, veal and lamb have become scarce commodities. This is all in keeping with the food-controller's demands, and with the heartiness that is now prevalent. It would seem as if the requirements of the boys at the front and the allies in Europe would be fully met.

Not only are the tilled acres of the United States being brought into requisition, but the wild pasture lands are doing tribute with their cattle and sheep. Working in conjunction with the United States, Western Canada is also doing its share and a pretty large share it is, too. By an arrangement with the United States Government it will now be possible through its employment bureau to secure for the Western Canada fields such help as can be spared. It is thought in this way Canada will have its help to seed its millions of acres of wheat land fairly well met. The large number of young men of the farms who have enlisted and gone to the front has left many of the Western Canada farms weak in the matter of man power. This means that Canada can take all that the United States can spare. The wages will be good and the housing comfortable.

In addition to this the free homestead lands of Western Canada offer the greatest inducement to the man with limited means who is willing to undergo some of the hardships naturally accompanying this enterprise. There is also the large area of uncultivated lands that are waiting the man with sufficient means to purchase and equip. And this is not expected. The cheap lands are cheap and terms very reasonable. Equipped with tractor or horse power the cultivator cost is slight when the return is considered. Yields of wheat varying from 20 to 40 bushels per acre may be realized upon, and with a set price of over $2.00 per bushel, it is not easy matter to arrive at the cost. Production, including interest on land, has been estimated at figures not exceeding ten dollars an acre. With a twenty bushel yield, at a two dollar price—forty dollars. Ten from forty and you have the profits many farmers made in Western Canada the past year.

The Dominion and Provincial Governments are working conjointly in an increased production propaganda. Among the important steps that have been taken to bring this about is the recent order by which it is made possible to take into Canada tractors that cost four hundred dollars and less in the country of production. This will give those residing in the United States, owning lands in Canada, the opportunity to place them under cultivation at much less cost than in the past. Another inducement is the privilege of taking sheep and cattle in free of duty. Automobiles form a necessary part of the outfit of a good many farmers that would like to move to Canada. These are now accorded free duty. Provision is also made that those requiring seed and unable to obtain it in any other way, may get it from the Government. So from this it will be seen that it is not only the fertile lands of Western Canada that invite the settler, but the ease and cheapness with which a farmer may establish himself.—Advertisement.

Their First Mention.

Bobby, for once, expressed great interest in the sermon. "Fancy flying machines being mentioned in the Bible!" he said.

LIFE'S LITTLE JESTS

HER TITIAN HAIR.

The matron of the hospital repeatedly told the nurses to be sure to dry as well as clean the instruments. "If you don't dry them thoroughly they will rust," she had said so often.

And the little girl, the star patient, they called her, who had been there so long, knew all the instructions, rules and regulations by heart, and especially this piece of advice and direction.

A new nurse entered the hospital not long ago. Her hair was of a gorgeous red. It was the envy of all.

"How did you ever get hair of such a wonderful color?" asked one of the nurses, maliciously.

"It's quite natural," the new nurse replied quietly.

But the little girl called out from her bed:

"I know how she got it. She washed it and didn't dry it well—like the instruments, and it rusted—it did!"—New York Mail.

HAD HIS NUMBER

"Why, I had hardly met him, don't you know, when he called me a fool. What sort of a fellow is he?"

"Oh! he's a wise guy, all right."

Turned Up at Times.

Mrs. Flatbush—Where did your neighbor's little girl get her turned-up nose from?

Mrs. Bensonhurst—From her mother.

"Why, her mother hasn't a turned-up nose."

"Hasn't she? I guess you never saw her when she lost at bridge."

Business Proposal.

"Do you love me?" asked the young man, boldly.

"Isn't this rather sudden, Mr. Higgins?" replied the sweet young thing.

"Can't you give me a week to consider my answer?"

"No, I can't. I have an option on another girl, and the option expires tomorrow!"

Just What Did She Mean?

The Doctor—And how is the patient this morning?

The Patient's Wife—He seems much worse, I thank you.

The Doctor—Don't mention it.

Its Nature.

"A coal strike just now would be a terrible misfortune."

"How so, when at the worst it could be but a minor incident?"

Quite Dissimilar.

"Hamlet said, 'Here are the counterfeited presents of two brothers.'" "So did the grand jury when they indicted a family of conlers."

Grounds for Skepticism.

"I have no patience with the person who says he never believes anything he reads in a newspaper."

The Jewels Now.

"I heard that burglars made a big haul of valuables last night."

"Did they break into a jewelry store?"

"No; into a coal shed."

Five Bottles Peruna Restored Me To Complete Health

Mr. C. N. Petersen, dealer in fine books, shoes and cigars, 132 S. Main St., Council Bluffs, Ia., writes: "I cannot tell you how much good Peruna has done me. Constant confinement in my store began to affect my health and I felt that I was gradually breaking down. I tried several remedies prescribed by my physician, but obtained no permanent relief until I took Peruna. I felt better immediately and five bottles restored me to complete health. I have been in the best of spirits since, and feel that I owe my health to Peruna. Our booklet, telling you how to keep well, is free to all. The Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

apparently he had tired of her. There was Lee, of course, but just the same she missed Maurice. That same day she would have to make a choice between them had never entered her head, or if it had, had not dwelt there for any second thought. Down in her heart, however, there was a feeling that she was just beginning to recognize, and now that the possibility of having to make a choice appeared to her she felt that it would not take her long to make it. But as the days went by without Maurice making any advances to pick up the friendship where they had left off, and she wondered if after all Lee was not the better man.

Commenement day came. Then followed the final baseball match with the team that had been the rival for years. It was a glorious game and the way both Lee and Maurice played gladdened the heart of Violet and caused her to cheer frantically from her place among the fans. Oh, what glorious boys they both were, she thought. But her cheers were silenced as the game neared an end and things looked black for the home team. When it ended in favor of the visitors she was one of the first to congratulate her friends among them: "It was grand," she told them, "and I was proud of all the men on both teams."

She knew where to find Lee and Maurice and hurried to the place. Perhaps Maurice had been studying hard to graduate and that was why he had neglected her, she thought. Of course that was it! Why hadn't she thought of that before?

She paused as she reached within hearing distance of the members of the team. It was Lee's voice raised in angry protest. As she listened her cheeks burned. What a poor loser he was, she thought, so unlike a true sportsman. Maurice sped her first and hurried to greet her. Lee stopped his flow of angry denunciation of everybody and everything in general and looked around shamefully.

"We had better get away from here," Maurice said, trying to cover up Lee's mistake.

"I am sorry for Lee," Violet said. "I hadn't any idea he was such a poor sport. I admire a good loser."

Maurice did not speak again until they were well away from the ball grounds.

"I would not have had you hear Lee make that mistake for the world," he said, when he did speak. "He is really a good sort—one of the best friends a man could have."

"Yes; he makes a very good friend—one can overlook shortcomings in a friend, but I pity the woman who married him, for there are so many losses and disappointments in life and I am afraid Lee won't take them in the spirit he should."

That startled Maurice's heart fluttering. "Why I thought he began, but Violet interrupted him.

"You thought what?" she asked.

"That there was something between you and Lee. You said—"

"What did I ever say that would make you think anything like that?"

"You remember at the dog show what you said about thoroughbreds—men and dogs. Well, Lee is from an old family, a thoroughbred in the true sense of the word."

"That is where I disagree with you," she broke in. "A clear brain and head and clean habits make the thoroughbred man. Family does not count at all, if he is lacking in these qualities."

"But Lee is most of that," Maurice deflected.

"I'll admit it, but I'm not at all interested in Lee. There is someone interests me far more."

"Let's go some place where we can talk it over," he laughed as she linked her arm in his.

How Catapult Launches Planes.

In devising a thoroughly practical apparatus for launching scouting aircraft from ships at sea the navy department has achieved—one of the most notable results in the art of military aeronautics. Capt. Washington L. Chambers blazed the way for this revolutionary stride in aeronautics.

The experimental apparatus was mounted upon a float at the Washington navy yard, where, for the first time in the history of aviation, a flying machine was actually buried into the air after an extraordinarily brief run of something like forty feet, and given such speed at the instant of its release as to keep it aloft in the air until its engine was spinning fast enough to furnish the sustaining impulse.

What was equally remarkable was that the catapult gathered speed in that short distance so smoothly that the aviator was not thrown from his seat nor was his craft strained in the least.

Water Plants.

It has been found that the climate affects the inhabitants of the sea just as it does those of the land. As Arctic land plants cannot flourish at the Equator, so in the Arctic and Antarctic oceans marine plants are found that are unable to survive in warm water. Among the most remarkable of these cold-water plants are the laminariae, a kind of seaweed, which sometimes attains a gigantic size, exceeding in length the longest climbing plants of the tropical forests, and developing huge stems like the trunks of trees. Investigation has shown that these plants flourish in the coldest waters of the Polar seas, and that they never advance further from their frigid homes than to the limits of "summer temperature" in the ocean. The genial warmth destroys them, just as a Polar blast shivers the flowers of a tropical garden.

Swift & Company Publicity

At a recent hearing of the Federal Trade Commission there was introduced correspondence taken from the private files of Swift & Company, which showed that the Company had been considering for some time an educational advertising campaign.

The need for this publicity has been apparent to us for several years. The gross misrepresentation to which we have recently been subjected has convinced us that we should no longer delay in putting before the public the basic facts of our business, relying on the fair-mindedness of the American people.

The feeling against the American packer is based largely on the belief that the income and well-being of the producer and consumer are adversely affected by the packers' operations, resulting in unreasonably large profits.

Swift & Company's net profit is reasonable, and represents an insignificant factor in the cost of living.

For the fiscal year 1917 the total sales and net profit of Swift & Company were as follows:

Sales	$875,000,000.
Profits	$34,650,000.

This is equivalent to a $3,465, profit on a business of $87,500.

If Swift & Company had made no profit at all, the cattle raiser would have received only one-eighth of a cent per pound more for his cattle, or the consumer would have saved only one-quarter of a cent per pound on dressed beef.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Win the War by Preparing the Land Sowing the Seed and Producing Bigger Crops

Work in Joint Effort the Soil of the United States and Canada
CO-OPERATIVE FARMING IN MAN POWER NECESSARY TO WIN THE BATTLE FOR LIBERTY

The Food Controllers of the United States and Canada are asking for greater food production. Scarcely 100,000,000 bushels of wheat are available to be sent to the allies overseas before the crop harvest. Upon the efforts of the United States and Canada rests the burden of supply.

EVERY AVAILABLE TILLABLE ACRE MUST CONTRIBUTE; EVERY AVAILABLE FARMER AND FARM HAND MUST ASSIST

Western Canada has an enormous acreage to be seeded, but man power is short, and an appeal to the United States allies is for more men for seed-ing operation.

Canada's Wheat Production Last Year was 225,000,000 Bushels; the Demand From Canada Alone for 1918 is 400,000,000 Bushels

To secure this she must have assistance. She has the land but needs the men. The Government of the United States wants every man who can effectively help, to do farm work this year. It wants the land in the United States developed first of course; but it also wants to help Canada. Whenever we find a man we can spare to Canada's fields after ours are supplied, we want to direct him there.

Apply to our Employment Service, and we will tell you where you can best serve the combined interests.

Western Canada's help will be required not later than April 5th. Wages to competent help, $50.00 a month and up, board and lodging.

Those who respond to this appeal will get a warm welcome, good wages, good board and find comfortable homes. They will get a rate of one cent a mile from Canadian boundary points to destination and return.

For particulars as to routes and places where employment may be had apply to: U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

"The turnover is vital to successful merchandising."

"In that case," said the baker, "may-be I'd better put more turnovers in the oven."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Never Fail.

"The hostess said the affair was to be strictly informal." "That makes the girls dress up, all right."

England now has more than 4,775,000 women wage earners.

HULLONIANS' HAPPY HOURS

March 11th, at 3 p. m. After the opening exercises the children of Miss Howard's room gave a pleasing program, which included an original flag drill, very pretty and prettily done by the little tots. This was followed by an illustrated lecture given by the children of the upper grades on France. This used the lantern purchased last year for grade work and was most entertaining and instructive. The children deserve great credit as well as the teachers for the excellent manner in which each one delivered his or her part of "the lecture." (Oliver dictum, those who do not attend the meetings of the P.T.A. miss much.) It was much more interesting to have a different pupil give a history of apiculture than if one gave the whole lecture. The pictures were good. The program committee are indeed getting up interesting programs and the need of outside speakers is not felt.

Mrs. C. H. Waterhouse and Carrie left last week Friday for a visit with Mrs. Robert Strohl at her home in Pennsylvania. It is said that Charlie, John and Chester are some cooks and have real eats, nothing camouflaged.

Mrs. Vera Waterhouse was ill for a few days, but is now out again owing to the excellent care given her by her father.

The regular meeting of the Hull Village P.T.A. was held at the school on Monday. A business meeting followed. It was voted to send the Child Welfare Magazine to the Library and to the School.

On Wednesday, March 20, the New England Woman's Press Association held a literary meet at the Twentieth Century Club, 3 Joy street, Boston. Miss Frances Nevin gave a miscellaneous program of readings. Miss Margaret K. Alexander, leading soprano at the First Baptist Church, sang several solos. Mrs. Sirovich attended.

Some stirring in real estate circles. Mrs. Cora B. Weston, one of the largest real estate owners in town, has more than half her houses already sold. Mr. Sylvester and Mr. Rudderham report several customers. Mrs. Sirovich has had several calls for houses. It looks like a good season.

Vaughn Nickerson left on Monday on the one o'clock train for N. Y. and for the Aviation School at Camp Oglethorpe, Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson went to see him off. Vaughn left with a smiling face and good courage.

It has been a unanimous vote of the School Committee of Hull that the coming year the school children attending the grammar schools be conveyed in automobiles.

In another column will be found a notice pertaining to bids for auto service in conveying children to schools.

Mr. Fred L. Mitchell, Mrs. Oscar Mitchell and Miss Letty Mitchell returned this week from New York, where they accompanied Oscar, who has been serving a Southern camp.

Attention is called to a letter in another column from Rev. Frank Kingdon, one of the trustees of the Village library, asking the need for books for the soldiers and sailors.

Frederic Vogel the Epworth League meeting in a very acceptable manner last week.

The whist and dance given by Mrs. E. Maud Mitchell and several of the ladies of the S. A. S. A. P. in aid of that branch of war-work was successful. Coffee and sandwiches were served after the whist.

It is said that the Junior Red Cross, under the direction of the teachers, are doing good work and that many are enrolled.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewster are both very ill at present writing we are sorry to state. Mrs. Carrie E. Mitchell is teaching in the Damon School while Miss Gladys Mitchell is at home caring for her parents.

Mr. Charles Sylvester has nearly recovered his usual good health.

Mr. Smith Sturgis arrived at the home of his son, Captain Sturgis, at Allerton last week, from New York State where he has been spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Perham.

A book by Fitz-Henry Smith, Jr. tells the story of the "Life Savers of Hull" in graphic manner, special notice being given to the heroic deeds of Captain Joshua James and Captain Samuel James.

On Easter Monday, April 1st, the Ladies of the S. A. S. A. P. Hull unit will have a basket party in the Town Hall, at 8 o'clock. The ladies who attend are requested to bring a basket containing lunch for two (no canapés on account of the day). These baskets will be sold at auction, but for a reasonable sum. The amusement will be whist and dancing. There will be at least six prizes. Everybody invited to join in the fun.

The whist and dance given recently in aid of the S. A. S. A. P. netted about $30.00. The prizes were awarded as follows: First, lady's beautiful embroidered handkerchief case, Mrs. Harrington Mitchell; second prize, ent glass dish, Miss Henrietta Tommesen; consolation, hat pin, Miss May Lewis; first, gentleman's prize, flash light, Joseph Rose; second prize, sterling silver pen-pen, James Murphy, Jr. The young people prolonged the dance until 1 o'clock. The Hull orchestra furnished music.

Attention is called to the Thrift Stamp Notice from the Plymouth County chairman, Mr. Eldon B. Keith and publicity assistant, Mr. Ernest A. Burrill. A committee from the public safety committee will have charge of the work locally and the Boy Scouts are help out during the campaign week.

BEAN SUPPER

The so called Bean Supper—more like a banquet—served under the auspices of the Guild of St. Elizabeth at Miss Canary's on March 9th was a grand success in every way. The viands were of such an excellent quality as to tempt the appetite of Lucifer, the epicure of epicureans. The food was all contributed by the ladies of the Guild and $50 was netted for the work of the Guild. Baked beans, frankfurts, pickles of various kind, brown bread, rolls, coffee, tea, cakes, pies of all kinds were set before a jolly party and the social side was not neglected. Miss Gertrude Morton was present and kept the children and "children of larger growth" busy doing stunts of entertainment. Mrs. Jordan played the piano throughout the evening. Everybody had such a good time and good supper that the cry is heard "have another one soon." Rev. Andrew J. O'Brien, president of the Guild, graced the affair with his presence.

It was the first appearance at any festive occasion of Mr. N. J. Guy after recovery from his severe illness and he was forced to hold an impromptu reception, all his friends coming up to shake hands with him.

H. K. Bartow listened with pleasure last Sunday evening when he gave a graphic talk on his work in the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Devens, Mass., at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Rev.

Bartow refuted with emphasis the stories of moral uncleanness at Ayer.

He is certainly an extremely busy man, his day beginning at 5:45 A.M. and ending at 10 P.M. with only an hour or an hour and a half for rest during that time, day in and day out. But his work is vitally, intensely interesting and full of vast scope for spiritual and moral influences brought in contact as he is daily with hundreds of men of differing personalities now laboring under especial stress and strain.

Mr. Bartow will go back to his work with the good speed and good wishes of all the people who are glad and proud that their pastor has been called to perform such a noble even if so arduous work at a time when our country needs so much the services of such men as he.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickerson are to take charge of the "Cohasset Home"

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS OF WILLIAM C. APPLETON, JR.

Written in Camp of the Second Section of the Second Group in the American Camion Service of the French Army. Location, about half a mile from Jouaigne, a few miles to the eastward of Soissons, on the Aisne Front in France.

The section, (T. M. U. No. 133, was its official designation occupied this camp June 22, 1917 and began active work.

Letter No. 1. July 3, 1917.

We've seen nothing special in the way of fighting. Last night we had to take some trench supports up to a certain chateau which is in this vicinity and is almost as near the front as we ever go, which means up to the farthest-to-the-rear artillery lines. The chateau is bombed usually in the evenings, but the French artillery seemed to make more noise than the arrivals or German shells a few of which landed within a couple of hundred yards.

The most interesting thing to do is to stop on the way to the Chateau, where we go often, and climb a ridge on the right of the road which gives a good view of the lines as we can get from the rear. The Germans shell the ridge at about fifteen minute intervals with small high explosives and then usually the French batteries reply. The German shells make quite a noise and air concussion, if they land close enough and it is very fascinating. Half way up the ridge is a grave-yard. Starting at the bottom the process is as follows: You approach the grave-yard and look at the graves. The first ones are all about May 30. Then you go up the hill and the dates on the crosses become more recent. You come to June 3, June 10; June 17, June 22 and then June 30, a boy of the military class of June, 1917. Then next you come to half filled graves, where the soldiers digging them have had to stop for mealtime, then come empty and waiting graves, and just beyond them many others marked out, and beyond that to a big shell-hole which we made the day before.

They you go up the ridge and bear artillery and arrives, and then you come to the top and look off over a great country, half rolling, half level, more or less hilly and marked by smoke puffs everywhere. The only moving things you see are the aeroplanes in the air and the birds in the trees and occasionally a flash from a gun.

HINGHAM HAPPENINGS

The Woman's Relief Corp. No. 60 held an all-day sewing meeting at Grand Army hall on Thursday doing Red Cross work. A business meeting was held in the afternoon.

Earl Lovell has been confined to the house for several days with bronchitis and tonsillitis.

Last Friday, Mrs. E. Melissa Sprague fell on the sidewalk sustaining a sprained wrist, bruised face and several other injuries. It seems as if misfortunes never came singly, what with Mrs. Lovell not yet fully recovered from a severe operation, Earl sick and Grandma Sprague's accident this family had and it share. Mrs. Lovell says that they are thinking of starting a small hotel with resident nurse and doctor. Mrs. Lucile Lovell, Mr. Lovell's mother, has been in attendance there for some time now. "Grandma Lovell" keeps well, we are glad to say. By the way it may interest some of our readers to know that Mrs. Lovell is an old air valued friend of Edithette Sirovich.

Mrs. Frank Reed of Middle street charmingly entertained at a neighborhood knitting tea on Monday. A delicious tea.

This Tech Twelve club now known as the O. K. Club will give a dance in Agricultural hall this evening, Friday, March 22, in aid of the S. A. S. A. Puff's orchestra will furnish music.

Arthur R. Kimball, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Kimball, was elected president of the freshman class of Tufts College at the class election held Wednesday, Mar. 13th. He is a graduate of the Mitchell Military School and Huntington School. He is a member of Sigma Tau Delta Fraternity.

The Hingham Historical Society held its March meeting on Thursday, Mar. 21 at 7:45 p. m., at the New North Parish House. Mr. Roy Hatch of Dorchester High School gave an address on "The Foot Hills of History." Mr. Hatch was formerly a submaster in the High School. He is a native of Marshfield. The meeting was public.

Mrs. George Horton entertained the members of the W. C. T. U. on Tuesday of last week. The meeting was well attended. Two members who attended the hearing on the ratification resolution for national prohibition gave an interesting report.

Mrs. Carl C. Jones of Waterville, Maine, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Kimball.

The lecture given recently by Dr. Charles Whalen at Guild hall to the members of the Guild and their friends is still talked about. The doctor gave a graphic description of a wounded man being taken from the front line trenches into the zone of communication. He spoke feelingly of the good work being done by the Red Cross, Knights of Columbus, and Y. M. C. A. and gave many interesting events of his training while at camp.

"It Pays To Advertise" as given by the Hingham Players Club last week was well staged and well acted. The cast was as follows: Mrs. Grayson, Mrs. Irving C. Wright, Johnson, Mr. Reginald and Osborne, Comtesse, De Bouillon, Mrs. John T. Hollis, Rodney Martin, Mr. George A. Cole, Cyrus Martin, Mr. Winthrop J. Cushing, Amrose Peale, Mr. J. Winthrop Spooner, Marie, Mrs. Reginald A. Osborn; William Smith, Mr. S. Randall Lincoln, Donald McNeese, Mr. Henry W. Keene, Miss Bunke, Miss Carol Nichols; Ellery Clark, Mr. Wm. W. Melcher, George Bronson, Mr. Frank H. Wright, Mrs. B. W. Rich now has in her stock of delightful Spring goods.

Mrs. Catherine L. Ridgway died at her home, 758 Elm street, Peckskill, N. Y. on Thursday morning, March 13th, she was in her 89th year. She was stricken with paralysis three months ago and lingered until Thursday when her strong constitution succumbed at the disease. Mrs. Ridgway was born in New York City on Dec. 23 1829, the daughter of John Cropey. She was educated in New York City, and seventy-two years ago married John A. Ridgway in that city. He died May 4th, 1908. She is survived by one son, James G. Ridgway of Brooklyn, N. Y. and three daughters Mrs. Emma Wolf of Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Susie Acker of Peekskill, Mrs. and two grandchildren, Perley M. Acker of Peekskill and Isabelle W. Ricker of Hingham, Mass.

The funeral services were held at her late home Monday, March 18th, at 2 p. m., the Rev. R. L. Ross officiating. Mrs. Clifford Forbush of "Hamilton" and "Somewhere" and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" the interment was at Hillside cemetery.

On the evening of O. E. S., under the chairmanship of Sister Lucy A. Nashling, held a "fund social." The members were entertained through the darkened rooms to the music of a bag-pipe, while the "Mardi Gras" played all sorts of pranks much to the enjoyment of all.

Monday, March 18, was the fifth anniversary and at 6:30 o'clock about one hundred and fifteen members and their friends sat down to a fine dinner prepared by Brother Fred A. Richards and the efficient committee. The entertainment was in charge of Sister Grace W. Mitchell.

Among the features of the evening were the singing of the old songs which were illustrated by appropriate tableaux, solo dancing and a birthday cake with a toast by the officers.

A history of the chapter written and spoken by Sister Carrie T. Richardson deserves special mention. This sister, who is seventy-eight years young, shall have much praise for the many nice things said in her poem.

The proceeds from this excellent dinner and entertainment are to be given to the local Red Cross Society.

Advantages of Egotism.

It is to be said in favor of self-appreciation that people may not take you at your estimate of yourself, but they will be sure to accept any underestimate that you may make.

Making an Old Thing Useful.

My oven had a tendency to burn on the bottom until a friend told me to cut a piece of old wire screen just the size of my oven, and always keep it in place. Since then I have had no further trouble. The cost was nil, as I cut the screen from a discarded door.

the authors, deals with that most interesting period of American development, the period of Washington's first administration. Many of the great characters of that time are visualized on the Hollis stage with Mr. Arliss, among which may be mentioned Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe, Count Talleyrand, General Philip Schuyler, and among the ladies, Betsy Hamilton and Angelica Church. A love intrigue forms the centre of the plot in which Mrs. Reynolds figures prominently. "Hamilton" has around considerable discussion, particularly the fine points of historical accuracy, but there is to be a general consensus of opinion that it is an entertainment sparkling with wit and interest it is, to use the words of the Transcript, "of uncommon merit." The last two matinees will be on Wednesday, March 27, and Saturday, March 30.

"THE RAPE OF BELGIUM"

A New War Play with Notable Cast Coming to the Shubert Theatre, Boston, Next Week, March 25th.

At the Shubert Theatre next week, beginning Monday, March 23, A. H. Woods will present a new melodrama in three acts entitled "The Rape of Belgium" for the first time on any stage. The play is the joint work of Max Marin, author of "Cheating Cheaters," "The House of Glass" and other successes, and Louis K. Anslinger, author of "The Unchastened Woman." The play will be enacted by as distinguished a company as has ever been assembled in a single play, including such star players as John M. Conway, Tearle, Wyndham, Malcolm Williams and others. "The Rape of Belgium" promises to reveal as vivid and startling a picture of the Great War as has or will be seen in American theatres. The three acts of the play are laid in France, in a section devastated by the German invasion. The setting is the interior of a Chateau belonging to a French nobleman, now at the front and his America wife. The woman and her younger sister are compelled to receive their guests a party of bestial German officers who have been billeted with them. In this tense atmosphere, with the thunderous back-ground of the war to heighten the effect of their story, the authors have introduced an amazing series of developments. Mr. Wood, already noted for plays possessing power and "punch" has never produced a play so replete with spectacular incident, gripping situations and surprises that almost halt the breath. The play will remain at the Shubert Theatre for a limited engagement.

Considering Utility and Other Things

We may inaugurate our spring outfitting as we will—usually it begins with the purchase of a coat for general wear—but we cannot finish without acquiring this mainstay of the wardrobe. For three seasons cloths and colors have made the streets more cheerful; they have been beautiful enough to tempt extravagance. There has been a generous sprinkling of gay colors among the dark grays and blues and browns that seem to be so closely associated with the thought of utility clothes in the minds of most people.

The spring coats are privileged to use enough woolen stuffs to make them anywhere from 45 to 48 inches long, and comfortably full at the bottom, nevertheless the best models are those that follow the straight and narrow path of wool conservation. Collars are not as large as they were, although there are many models with convertible collars that may be worn close up about the throat. Overlays of brocaded or embroidered silk or novelty weaves in cotton are a means for securing variety. Belts are narrow and plain. Small collars ending in scarf ends or throws for the neck, which may be of the same cloth as the coat or of a different material, are among the spring innovations.

Wool velours, gaberdine, serge, Burgh cloth and novelty woolen fabrics, in good grades, are the materials used. Some models feature a combination of silk and wool, with wide bandings of wool on silk skirts or inlays of silk. But women will hardly consider it economical to buy utility coats of anything less hardy than reliable woolen weaves.

Two tasteful spring coats of wool velours are shown in the illustration. They portray the styles and are made in some of the novelty as well as staple colors. Khaki, Copenhagen, Peking, light tan, raspberry, enliven the navy, black, clay and taupe of the darker models.

WHAT CAN WE DO?

The Red Cross, the American Fund for French Wounded, and other war relief societies are co-operating in France to care for the French and Belgian women who are now being driven back into their own countries after their deportation into Germany. It is reported that they are in rags and destitute, and the relief societies are doing all they can to fit them out with the bare necessities and decencies of life. The Chicago Tribune makes the following appeal:

"To give the required help the American Fund for French Wounded, 60 East Washington street, Chicago, has devised a Martha Washington kit. The kits are to be sent at once to France, and each refugee as she makes her weary way back to her beloved land is to be given one of them. The directions for these kits follow:

"The cost of these kits is to be kept within $4. One yard of shirting will make the bag. The width of the goods makes the length of the bag. It is run up on the machine. The bag is French seamed with the last seam on the outside all the way around. Turn in the bag at the top two inches, with one inch heading—and an inch casing for the tape. There is a double drawstring of tape. When the bag is packed the free end is neatly doubled over and pinned down with two safety pins at the back, making it compact and safe for shipment."

"The kit contains the following articles, some of which may be made at home or purchased as the furnisher of the kit desires:

"One canton flannel nightgown.
One heavy chemise.
One pair of drawers.
One pair of black stockings and one pair of white.
One rough towel.
One washcloth.
One comb.
One cake of soap."

"A 'housewife,' which contains one spool of white, and one of black thread, black darning cotton, thimble, six safety pins, dozen assorted buttons, one and one-half yards of tape, five needles, hairpins, plain pins. And in the 'housewife' is a card stating that this is a Martha Washington kit sent in memory of Mrs. Washington, who was a friend of Lafayette."

"In each kit is a stamped, addressed envelope is put so that the one who receives the gift may acknowledge it to the sender. A personal word of cheer and hope and friendliness may be inclosed, too, if the sender wishes."

Julia Bottomly

Collarless and Buttonless.

An unusual blouse is made of pale blue handkerchief linen, with a good deal of inch-wide fillet insertion used for trimming," says Women's Work. The embroidery is placed upon the lace itself—the outline of the design being accentuated by a fine thread of blue matching the linen in color. This blouse is collarless and is a slip over of the sort that fastens over the shoulders. But instead of buttons, the wearer must lace herself into this blouse by means of narrow black velvet ribbons. The sleeves are cut upon a full bishop pattern, and the tight cuffs are laced at the outer edge by the same narrow black velvet.

Simple Blouses.

Among the newest assortment of blouses are some from Paris which indicate a marked preference for fine materials and simple lines.

There are models made of handkerchief linen whose only trimming is in head fagoting; others are delicately trimmed with drawn work or have insets of real filet lace.

The new high collar is featured, although in deference to the wishes of many American women Paris has sent blouses that have the familiar V neck with the sailor or round collar.

Gloves Have Strap Wrists.

A noticeable feature of the current demand is the tendency toward a larger use of strap wrist or Biarritz effects, says the Dry Goods Economist. This, no doubt, is due more or less to the practical nature of such styles, making them suitable for wear with the tailored effects in suits and dresses which are now the vogue. Moreover, the Biarritz idea, especially in soft gauntlet design, conforms readily to any expression of a military note.

Clothing made of pressed feathers as a substitute for wool has been invented by an Italian priest.

A Man Famine

common with other countries involved in the World War, the United States is now suffering from a depletion of its business forces because of the large number of men who have entered the service of the government in the business of war. This condition is likely to become more acute in the near future. Business effort is further hampered by the cancellation of many trains on the railroads and by congestion of traffic.

What is the answer? Conservation!

This is the watchword, the slogan of today—We are asked to save food, coal, materials of every kind, yet but little has been said about the CONSERVATION OF TIME, TRAVELLING EXPENSE, etc., which are also matters of great importance.

The most effective aid to Conservation is the telephone because—

It is the quickest means of communication and thus conserves time.
It enables one man to do the work of many and thus conserves labor.
It is surprisingly effective of results, being equal and sometimes superior to a personal call; it thus increases business efficiency.
It is economical where we consider what can be accomplished by a telephone interview of a few minutes' duration, comprising several hundred words of conversation; it, therefore, conserves money.

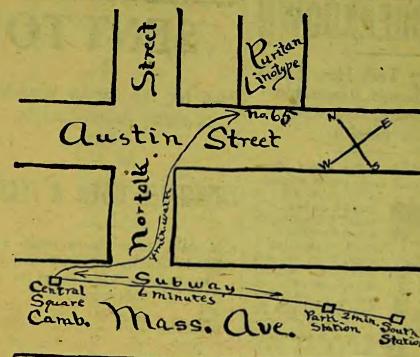

Then why not make "Conservation by Telephone" your slogan?

What will restore them more quickly by a stirring tale of adventure or heroism?

The boys need and are asking for text books. The subjects they are particularly interested in are military subjects, mathematics and sciences and foreign languages. The reason for this is plain. The men are seeking to improve themselves in order that they may be ready for advancement if opportunity offers. They are particularly interested in French books of all sorts as they seek to master the language of the country in which they are to fight.

They are asking for books of travel, history, biography and poetry. The books of travel will help them see the beauty of the lands as they pass through them. History will put them in touch with the great under currents of the present chaos while biography will supplement this by teaching them the value of personal character and the importance of the individual. Poetry will enthuse them if it helps them see the significance of living. All books of this kind will be welcomed. Many who cannot give money can give books which they have no further use. No school text book is too humble to be of service. All should rally to this appeal.

Books may be left at the Library Building any time when it is open. Promptness is a virtue in this cause. Yours respectfully,

FRANK KINGDON.

"BE KIND TO ANIMALS WEEK"

To the Editor:

The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals asks your cooperation in making its annual appeal for the people of the State to join in the national celebration of Be Kind to Animals Week, April 15 to 20, concluding with Human Sunday, April 21. It particularly urges ministers of all denominations to direct attention to the care and relief of animals in domestic service and at the front, and for this purpose will send free a copy of a brief sermon, "Justice for Animals," to any who will write for it.

The Society asks all schools to give at least part of Tuesday, April 16, known as Humane Day, to activities relating to animals and their care, and as in former years, will supply every teacher in grammar grades throughout the entire State with a pamphlet prepared for the occasion. This program will be distributed through the various superintendents in towns and cities. To moving picture houses which will exhibit them, the Society will send slides announcing the above dates. Free literature about Be Kind to Animals Week and Humane Sunday may be obtained by writing to the Secretary, Massachusetts S. P. C. A., 180 Longwood Avenue, Boston.

PUBLIC FORUM

Hull, Mass., March 19, 1918.
Mrs. E. J. Sirovich,
Allerton, Mass.
Dear Mr. Sirovich:
You have doubtless heard of the great need for more books for our soldiers and sailors and of the funds for them which will be made during the next week or two. In the earnest wish of the board of library trustees that Hull shall send the finest contribution possible. Let some of your readers may not clearly see the need of this work, I would like an opportunity to urge it upon them.

We belong to a reading age. Every body is reading something from the newspapers to the encyclopedias. Such a library as the Boston Public Library with its collection of books is abundant evidence of this fact.

Now our boys in the services are even as we are. Their minds still cry out for the stimulation of writings which appeal to us.

The soldiers and sailors need fiction to rest their minds and bodies. Many of them are now to their work, many of them are studying after years of absence from study, they soon get tired.
